Volusion Adds Four Best-of-Breed Companies to Partner Network

June 9, 2010 10:00 AM EDT

Shipwire, eBridge, Stamps.com and Verisign join Volusion to streamline online merchants' business operations

Austin, Texas and Chicago (PRWEB) June 9, 2010 -- Internet Retailer Conference

Volusion, the leading provider of ecommerce software and services for online merchants, today announced four new partners at Internet Retailer's 2010 Conference and Exposition. Shipwire, eBridge, Stamps.com and Verisign have all partnered with Volusion to increase their revenue opportunities while helping streamline business operations for Volusion customers.

Volusion's partner program already includes more than fifteen top companies from their respective industries, including Microsoft, FedEx, UPS and QuickBooks. The addition of the following companies to Volusion's partner network will provide best-of-breed distribution, back-office and infrastructure resources to the company's 20,000+ ecommerce clients. To learn more about the Volusion Partner Network, visit www.volusion.com/partners.

New Partners

Shipwire Shipwire provides an instant integration to automate Volusion order fulfillment and shipping. Shipwire provides ecommerce order fulfillment services powered by a global warehouse network and its Store-Sell-Ship™ platform. With warehouses across the U.S., Canada and the U.K., Shipwire allows merchants to drastically reduce shipping costs by locating inventory closer to buyers.

eBridge With eBridge Volusion solutions, customer and order information is automatically entered into the back-office financial system from a Volusion merchant's database. In turn, product information and order status updates are automatically entered into the Volusion interface to provide customers with essential up-to-date information.

Stamps.com Stamps.com's online postage service enables Volusion customers to print U.S. Postal Service -approved postage with just a PC, printer and Internet connection, right from their home or office. The company targets its services to small businesses and home offices, and currently has PC Postage partnerships with Avery Dennison, Microsoft, HP, Office Depot, the U.S. Postal Service and others.

Verisign VeriSign provides trusted infrastructure services to websites, enterprises, ecommerce service providers and individuals. The company's digital certificate provides the critical web identity, authentication and transaction infrastructure that online businesses require to conduct secure ecommerce and communications.

Supporting Quotes

• "By joining forces with Volusion, we are able to deliver over 37 accounting integrations to online business owners. This enables merchants to seamlessly and automatically transfer data between their accounting systems and the Volusion platform. We're excited to offer the financial technology that online merchants need to eliminate the time-consuming manual data input process," said Steve Bielawski of eBridge Software Business Development. • "We are excited to partner with Volusion, an ecommerce leader. Our alliance enables Volusion merchants to automate order fulfillment and grow their businesses. The free Shipwire connection provides automated order fulfillment, real-time inventory levels from Shipwire warehouses to merchants' Volusion accounts and seamless order tracking. We're pleased to provide an integration which allows Volusion merchants to focus on their business and remove the hassles of storage and shipping," said Nate Gilmore, Shipwire VP of Business Development and Marketing. • "At Volusion, we've always known that great companies need truly great partnerships. Collaboration and alliances allow multiple parties to focus on what they do best while collectively enhancing the overall ecommerce experience for our clients," said Clay Olivier, Volusion COO and CMO. "We're committed to continually finding synergies with leading companies to provide valuable resources for our customers. We anticipate adding new efficiencies that will greatly enhance the Volusion experience as a result of working with these new partners."

About Volusion Volusion is the leader in shopping cart software for online businesses. Over the last 10 years, thousands of companies have used Volusion to succeed online, including market leaders such as Disney, Motorola, Chicago Tribune, Michigan State University and Crutchfield.
